Contract summary

- This contract summary describes the main elements of our service offer as required by EU law¹.
- It is intended to help you make a comparison between service offers.
- Complete information about our service offer is available in other documents.

Services

Chat features, also known as Rich Communication Services ("RCS"), provide an upgraded, rich messaging experience for the Android ecosystem. An internet connection is required to send RCS messages. RCS is provided by Jibe Mobile using reasonable skill and care, although no minimum levels of quality of service are offered.

Price

RCS is offered at no cost, and its use is subject to compliance with the Jibe Mobile Terms of Service (available at <https://jibe.google.com/policies/terms/>) and Google Terms of Service (available at <https://policies.google.com/terms>).

Duration, renewal and termination

RCS is available for you to use immediately after sign-up. You are not committed to using RCS for a fixed duration and are free to stop using it at any time.

Features for end-users with disabilities

You can use a screen reader with RCS. Further details are available at

<https://support.google.com/messages/answer/6105764?hl=en>

Other relevant information

Customer Support: Help / Support for RCS is available at <https://support.google.com/>.

Disputes: You may be able to take a complaint to an alternative dispute resolution provider listed at <https://ec.europa.eu/consumers/odr/main/?event=main.adr.show2> or another provider, as legally required for your country. Further details are available in the Google Terms of Service.

Security Incidents: Jibe Mobile maintains a rigorous 24/7 incident management program to identify and respond to security or privacy events without delay. Jibe Mobile also provides a Security Checklist to help you manage your online security.

Personal Data: In order to sign up to RCS, you need to provide your phone number. The Google Privacy Policy (available at <https://policies.google.com/privacy>) provides further information on the personal data that is collected by Jibe Mobile when you use RCS. The Google Privacy Policy does not form part of the contract between you and Jibe Mobile or of this summary.
